FERGUSON

Introducing Democratic Candidate for State Senator From 32nd

Earl F. Ferguson, Van Wert attorney, Democratic candidate for state senator from the Thirty-second Ohio district, does not present a new face in politics of this section, altho it is his first political race.

Mr. Ferguson was born in the village of Unionville Center, Unionco, Ohio, October 22, 1876. He was educated in the common schools of Union and Van Wert-co. He then entered Ohio Northern university and completed the scientific and law courses and was admitted to the bar of Ohio in June, 1902.

He worked on a farm by the month at the age of 14, receiving the sum of $5 for his labor. Later he worked in the oil fields and then taught school for six years before being admitted to the bar.

He is affiliated with the I. O. O. F. and Elk lodges, at present being exalted ruler of the Elks of Van Wert.

While he never before sought public office, he has always been active in politics. He was chairman or secretary of the Central or Executive committees of Van Wert-co for 20 years. He also was a member of the State Central Committee from the Fifth district when John M. Pattison was elected governor and at that time was the youngest member of the committee.

He sums up his platform in these words: "I believe that our first endeavors should be for the producer, both soil and shop, cutting expenses and old-fashioned governmental economy."

He is making his campaign on the basis of too much legislation already. He strongly favors cutting expenses, even tho it costs some people their political jobs.

"If we are to have a happy people, we must cultivate love of country," he says. "No people will long be patriotic when the government is heaping burdens upon them that are painful to meet. Ohio and the entire nation are in a chaotic condition and our first endeavors should be toward getting on a good, sound business basis. I believe in the eternal progress of human affairs, but states like people may be fully of going faster than the income will justify."

C. R. PHILLIPS

Introducing Democratic Candidate for Auditor of Alien-co

"The Vic Donahay of Allen-co," they call Clem R. Phillips, Democratic candidate for re-election as auditor of Allen-co. It's not a title to be ashamed of by any means for Phillips got it thru his untiring scrutiny of every bill that comes into his office for payment.

He is the watch-dog of the people's money in this county and his eagle eye has worked to such advantage that he is given credit for saving a considerable amount during his first term. Not a bill goes thru his office, large or small, that does not first go into his hands for inspection. And there must have been value received or there's no payment. That's why they call him "the Vic Donahay of Allen-co."

Phillips was born on a farm in Knox-co on March 25, 1864. He has been a resident of Allen-co for the last 39 years. For 28 years he was operator and ticket clerk for the Erie railroad here and now is serving his first term as auditor.

He married Miss Rilla Mabrey, a resident of Hardin-co, in 1888. They are the parents of two children, both of whom are married. Phillips stands on his record of efficiency and care in handling the taxpayers' money. He has built up one of the most efficient organizations in his office to be found in Ohio. He handles all financial matters without playing favorites. The public must be safeguarded, is his creed.

If elected for a second term, Phillips will continue the same policy in the future as in the past, he announces.

SUSPECTED FIREBUG CAPTURED BY POLICE

NEW YORK — Joseph Prestomac was arrested early today by police from the hallway of an up-town apartment where a fire had started. Police are inclined to believe the arrest may aid in solving the mystery of two fires in up-town apartments recently in which twenty-two lives were lost. Prestomac told detectives that he had gone to the apartment to see a "friend" whose name he was unable to tell. An investigation disclosed evidence that the woodwork of the stairs had been soaked in kerosene.

WAR THREATENS TO RESULT FROM ITALY'S SHAKEUP

Fighting Already Begun Along Serbian Border—Many Killed and Conflict Spreading—Rome's New Premier to Rule With Iron Hand

LONDON — (United Press) — Fighting is reported to have broken out on the Serbian-Italian frontier as the result of the Fascisti triumph in Italy, according to Belgrade dispatches today.

Great excitement prevails in Serbia as the result of the Fascisti coup and newspapers are discussing the possibility of war, the dispatches said.

The fighting was reported near Sushak with many killed on both sides and the fighting is spreading. The Serbs are sending up reinforcements and it is understood they are ready to mobilize if necessary, the same dispatches said.

DEMANDS ON U. S. ENVOY

PARIS — (United Press) — An unconfirmed dispatch to the Agency Radio from Chiasso, said Fascisti had demanded that the American consul in Rome hoist the Italian flag over his consulate. The report also said the Fascisti burned the chamber of labor in Rome.

Chiasso is on the Italian-Swiss border.

NEW GOVERNMENT PLANS

ROME — (Associated Press) — Italy was on the road back to normalcy today after a most exhilarating week that saw the younger generation rise to power and in a great triumph overthrow the older politicians.

Today the flush of triumph gave way to the drab business of toll, individual and national. Dr. Mussolini the new premier, was on the job early. He made it plain that he was going to rule with an iron hand that Italy might the sooner be restored to a better economic basis and a more powerful place in international affairs.

For the moment at least Communism has no part in the life of Italy as the onslaught of the Fascisti has rendered all radicalism a paralyzing blow.

Politically the chief topic in Italy today is what the fortune of the new cabinet will be when it goes before the chamber of deputies. One thing is certain. If Mussolini's government does not receive a majority in the chamber, he will have parliament dissolved and then the Fascist will take their cause to the country.

CLEVELAND. — (Associated Press) — The case of Mrs. Mabel Champion, 22, charged with the first degree murder of Thomas A. O'Connell, a carnival promoter of New Haven, Conn., is expected to go to the jury late today.

O'Connell was shot to death in a restaurant here last July during a scuffle with Ausley Champion, the defendant's husband.

Walter D. Meals, counsel for Mrs. Champion, began his closing argument when court convened today. Edward C. Stanton, county prosecutor, made the opening argument for the state late yesterday.

Assistant Prosecutor James T. Cassidy was prepared to close for the prosecution when Mr. Meals concluded. Common Pleas Judge Maurice Bernon's charge to the jury will follow.

PLEA FOR DEATH

In his argument Prosecutor Stanton characterized the case as "one of the most important that has ever been heard in a court room in this county." He made an eloquent plea for the death sentence, asking dramatically, "Is this Cleveland or is it Paris, where Apaches of the underworld shoot men down in cold blood?"

On the stand in her own defense yesterday, Mrs. Champion admitted firing the shots which killed O'Connell, but testified that the shooting was accidental.

PAIR FOUND SHOT

New Jersey Man Slain and His Wife Wounded

BERGEN, N. J. — (United Press) — Frederick Germann was found dead from a bullet wound in the head in his home today. His wife, Margaret, lay unconscious beside him.

A bullet had struck the woman over the right ear. A revolver was found on the floor near Germann.

The tragedy was discovered by Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Olson, who live below the Germanns. The Olsens said they had heard sharp reports which they judged to be automobile backfire until they heard something fall to the floor above them. They were unable to get a reply to knocks on the door of the Germanns' apartment and forced an entrance.

The police surgeon declared that Germann's death had been caused by a bullet wound near the right temple.

Attorney Found Dead in His Room at Washington

WASHINGTON. — (United Press) — The body of Oscar W. Lange, attorney, was found in his room here today.

In his hand was a revolver. The bullet had passed thru his brain. The coroner rendered a verdict of suicide.

Lange's family live in Cincinnati and worry over a law case is thought to have caused him to take his life.

"UNWRITTEN LAW" FREES HUSBAND

Intruder in Home Badly Beaten When Surprised

ESCAPES FROM HOSPITAL

Wife and Man Held for Trials Thursday

"Unwritten Law" freed Harry Ream, 39, 413 W. High-st in criminal court Wednesday morning, where he was arraigned on a charge of disorderly conduct by fighting.

Mrs. Ethel Ream, 35, and Leo Stumbaugh, 49, 413 W. High-st, the third person in a domestic triangle, entered pleas of not guilty to charges of drunkenness and disorderly conduct and their trial was set for Thursday morning.

Ream was freed in court after he admitted his guilt to battling desperately with Stumbaugh to preserve the sanctity of his home, which he alleges Stumbaugh was endeavoring to violate. In the presence of his three children.

The details of the efforts made by Stumbaugh to win the favor of Ream's wife were told in court. According to Ream, he returned home shortly after 3 p. m. Tuesday afternoon to find Stumbaugh and Mrs. Ream drinking in full view of the children.

Ream, who returned home unexpectedly Tuesday afternoon after a week's stay in Columbus, entered the rear door of his house to find his wife was in the bathroom, clad only in filmy undergarments and Stumbaugh, holding an open bottle of whisky in one hand, endeavoring to enter the room, Ream alleged. He said both were intoxicated.

Primal instincts prompted Ream to encounter the intruder in his home, notwithstanding the other man's extra weight. Ream's right arm, with added strength of fury, inflicted a severe gash in Stumbaugh's lip, blacked both eyes and finally knocked Stumbaugh unconscious. Ream mauled his opponent until separated by police.

Stumbaugh, when taken to the police station, was a mass of cuts and bruises. His face had swollen to the extent of making him almost unrecognizable and upon a doctor's advice, Stumbaugh was taken to the city hospital, where his injuries were necessary to close the cut on his lip.

ESCAPES FROM HOSPITAL

Stumbaugh made a spectacular escape from the hospital early Wednesday morning, jumping out of a window ten feet above the ground. A taxi was summoned and Stumbaugh started for Marion along the Harding highway, but was recaptured by detectives.

Stumbaugh admitted in court that he had been haled into court before on charges very similar to the present offense and that his wife and son probably were living in Lima, altho he had not seen them for several months.

Stumbaugh asserted in court that he was a roomer at the Ream home, altho this was denied by Mrs. Ream, who alleged that he had called to see Mrs. Ream's sister. Police officers say, however, that besides the children and the principals of the disrupted household, they saw no other persons.

Mrs. Ream, who appeared to arranging office, made charges against her husband but these were not reiterated Wednesday morning.

Ream, however, charged his wife with attempting to aid Stumbaugh during the soiree and police officers asserted that Mrs. Ream threw water pitchers, bowls, plates, and other things at her husband.

Ream went to his home directly after leaving the station, where he is planning to make arrangements to remove the three children from the city.

LOST GIRL FOUND

Michigan Child Left in Woods by Abductor

MUSKOGON, Mich. — (Associated Press) — Rosalie Shanty, 11 years old, kidnapped Sunday as she came from church, was found wandering in the woods near Dublin, Manistee-co, late last night, according to a telegram received today from the chief of police at Wellston, Mich.

According to the police, the message intimated that the girl had been abducted by her abductor and had wandered about in the woods until she reached a farm house, where she was given shelter.

Muskogon officers have left for Wellston where the girl was removed early today.

A posse is searching the woods near Dublin for trace of a man who is said by two boys to have enticed the child into an automobile Sunday.

Rosalie won considerable recognition here last summer for her swimming and diving stunts at the municipal bathing beach.

FIVE PERSONS ARE KILLED IN STORM

HOLDS STAGE CENTER IN HALL TRAGEDY

MRS. HALL WILL ANSWER GIBSON WOMAN'S CHARGES

Slain Rector's Widow to Break Her Silence Today

DRAMATIC PREPARATION MADE

Stenographers With Mimeograph Machines to Take Story

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J. — (United Press) — Mrs. Frances Noel Hall, the slain rector's widow, is expected to answer accusations of Mrs. Jane Gibson, "pig ranch woman," when she breaks her silence for the first time to newspapermen on the Hall-Mills murder today.

Mrs. Hall will meet newspapermen late this afternoon. Timothy N. Pfeiffer here announced for the first bonafide interview, since she became known as the "sphinx of the Stevens mansion" immediately after the dual tragedy.

Dramatic preparations were made just for the woman, whom Mrs. Gibson charges witnessed the slayings, was to appear. A corps of stenographers with mimeograph machines at their elbows and other witnesses were brought in to take down the conversation. Pfeiffer explained this was to protect Mrs. Hall against being misquoted.

"PROTECTION SOUGHT"

Mrs. Gibson told reporters today that "they are seeking to discredit my story to protect the woman I named as present at the murders."

She made the assertion over the telephone, reporters unanimously using that mode of communication with her since she fired a shotgun "against being misquoted."

"People who are attacking me, want money and influence and the people they want to protect have money and influence, and explain the whole business," Mrs. Gibson charged.

"I am sorry for this woman. But this thing was on my mind and I just had to tell it after I saw that other people who knew all about it had no intention of giving their information to authorities."

Investigators in the case today declared they were centering their efforts around three men who fit the description of the man described by Mrs. Gibson, as having been the "avenging woman" under the "chapple tree."

Special Prosecutor Mott, while declaring: "I believe Mrs. Gibson's story will stand," further postponed calling of the Somerset-co grand jury to act on indictments.

Mrs. Gibson will be confronted with the three male suspects to see if they can be identified.

Mexican Insurrection Chief Captured by Federal Troops

MEXICO CITY — (Associated Press) — General Francisco Murguía, arch enemy of President Obregon for many years and one of the men who took part in the fight that brought death to former President Carranza, has fallen into the hands of federal troops, and his career as a dangerous rebel is thought to have come to an end.

With the little band of followers, General Murguía was surrounded yesterday afternoon near Durango City and captured. It was announced last night at the president's office. Recently he was described by President Obregon as "not a soldier but a fugitive from justice."

For a long while General Murguía has been credited with brewing a revolution. Two months ago he left his hiding place across the Rio Grande and came back into Mexico at the head of a rebel army said to number 800 men.

Three weeks ago his forces were decisively defeated in a clash with troops under General Escobar at Guacharo, in the state of Durango. Details of his capture were lacking here today.

Josephine had intercepted several letters addressed to her father and demanding sums of $500 and $1,000, which she destroyed.

"Papa and mamma," can't read English anyway," Josephine said. "I didn't think anything would come of the threats."

Within the next few days a statement will be made to the public regarding the intentions of the company and what changes will be made first, Sterling said.

MARAUDERS PLAY

But Delphos Police Held Crime to Minimum

Sneak thieves and joy riders took advantage of the fascinated throngs in Delphos downtown district Tuesday night, making away with loot and turning to their own use automobiles and bugies.

Police vigilance kept marauders to a minimum of activity and recovered both the one automobile and the one buggy and buggy stool. Mardi Gras celebrants who came for the Halloween festivity lauded the work of the authorities.

Isadore Jeebin, chairman in charge of the Mardi Gras event, had his car stolen while he was conducting the ceremonies. It was recovered later, however, a mile west of the city. Equipment had been stripped from the machine.

Louis Vassas, Ottoville, reported his horse and buggy stolen. Fifteen minutes later, Fred Foley, policeman, recovered it.

A. Truesdale, Delphos, had practically all of the tools stolen from his automobile while Charles Semedinger, Venedocia, lost the robes out of his machine.

Nothing of serious import came to the attention of authorities.

Lima Revels In Burst Of Masqued Joy

Lima returned to the "Land of Make Believe" Tuesday night, when for one evening age was forgotten, sorrows hidden and the heart and mind given up to the enjoyment of Halloween.

Elfs, goblins, devils, stepped out of their pictures in the city's fairy books and paraded the streets. Pierre and Pierette, Heloise and Abelard descended grandly from their places in the classics and with manner regal brought back glimpses of the world of ages past.

The pageantry was completed by the motley collection of Sheiks, Rudolph Valentinos and other moques, which like Topsy "just grew" out of nowhere in particular.

STREETS CROWDED

The streets of the business district in Lima were crowded from building walls to curb, groups of small lads, bursting with vivacious activity would dodge helterskelter among the pedestrians, yet the spirit (and spirits) of Halloween prevailed and the boisterous crowds enjoyed the spectacle to the utmost. Showers of confetti covering young and old, rich and poor, with its snow-like mantle, seemed to cast a charm over its victims and even the grumpiest man could occasionally be seen to smile as some particularly grotesque costume would come into view.

Hordes the parade in the business district dances were held in almost every hall in the city. Fancy costumes and cheers of happiness resounded thru the streets until an early hour Wednesday morning as groups of merry makers would separate after leaving the dances.

Halloween, according to the police, was attended by less than the usual number of complaints of destruction or property. Most of the complaints reported to headquarters said that small boys were throwing stones or piling obstructions in the street.

The most serious complaint received was that of Fred DeVoe, Avon hotel, who reported that his automobile had been stolen at McCullough's Lake. The car was recovered at 2 a. m. Wednesday and was returned to its owner undamaged.

Manfield reported a coupe had been stolen Tuesday night. Delphos notified the police department that a touring car had disappeared and Spencerville lost a sedan.

The only damage reported in the business district was that a stone was thrown thru the window of the Hoover-Roush company.

One false fire alarm was answered by the fire department. It had to be expected, firemen declared.

For the last several years he has been living with relatives.

He is survived by three brothers: J. F. Jameson, of near Harrod; Alex Jameson, E. Main-st and Jasper Jameson, E. Market-st. Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

VAPOR STOVE CO. BUILDING PLANS SHOW EXPANSION

Demands for Vapo stoves has become so great that plans for the new building to be built by the Vapo Stove Building Co., have been changed adding one-third more floor space.

Even the building has not been started the business of the company has made necessary the expansion it was announced at the chamber of commerce, and involved additional financing.

A committee of A. C. CaJacob and George McNeany were visiting vapor business men Wednesday disposing of an additional $5,000 worth of stock in the building company.

LAD IS RELEASED

Parents Refuse to Pay Fine Other One Held

Justice E. M. Botkin ordered the release Wednesday, of Lester Kacher, 13, after a fine of $5 and costs imposed Tuesday was paid. Kacher was one of four Columbus Grove youths who were arrested for annoying a social at the Gomer high school. Parents of Russell Linn, 20, taken at the party and fined $10, indicated, refused to pay his fine. Officers of the court said.

Noel Smith has no connection with the state prohibition department, Justice Botkin declared Wednesday. Assertions made by him to the court that he was acting in an official capacity when arrested Monday night with the others, Gomer, resulted in his receiving the maximum penalty of $50 and days in jail for disturbing a public meeting.

Ben Brown, 32, and Al Richardson, 37, taken in custody at the Metropolitan garage Monday night after a car containing whisky was seized, were brought before Justice E. Botkin for a preliminary hearing Wednesday afternoon.

VOTERS TO DECIDE WHO'S LYING

Corporation Charges Against Thompson Draws Denial

DONAHEY PRESENTS FACTS

Democrats Look to Election for Confirmation of Truth

COLUMBUS — (Associated Press) — Again citing "indisputable facts," that Carmel A. Thompson, Republican candidate for governor, is a stockholder in iron and coal companies, Democratic state headquarters in a statement asserted it will be up to the voters to decide whether Donahey or Thompson are telling the truth.

"Last night in Akron," said the statement, "Vic Donahey proved that Thompson had been president of the Cottonwood Coal Co. whereas Col. Thompson had made the solemn statement he never had been connected with a coal company in his life."

"Vic Donahey in Akron proved the Ironton Solvay Coal and Coke Co. in which Thompson has acknowledged he was a director, was a constituent part of the $250,000,000 road trust which has been flitting the state of Ohio of immense sums overpaid for far roads. "Let the people of Ohio decide who is telling the truth."

"He delayed the denial until he could make it truthfully. On the day he made his speech, Highway Director Herriek drove the $4,480 machine into the repair shop here."

The statement said the machine was in bad repair and that "it probably will remain in the shop for some time, as it needs general overhauling."

The Anti-Saloon League is asked, in another statement, what "it intends to do" about Frank Hill, Republican candidate for representative from Meigs-co., being fined for alleged violation of dry laws."

"Democratic state headquarters states that it is pertinent to inquire what the Anti-Saloon League intends to do in this particular case," said the statement.

DELPHOS NIMRODS SECURE HUNTING LICENSES AT HOME

Two places in Delphos have become Meccas for nimrods of the district. Issuance of hunters' and trappers' licenses has been started at the Marlon-up house by Clerk T. B. Sevit, while Joseph Beckman at the King & Stallkamp drug store is doing out permits for residents on the Van Wert-co side of the canal.

The muskrat will have a hard life after the season sets in November 15, judging by the brisk demand for licenses. Sevit and Beckman each report that 100 have so far been issued. Beckman has a supply of about 250, while Sevit has 200. More will be needed as the open season for rabbits sets in. The season extends from November 15 to January 1.

Sevit predicts that fully as many licenses as last year will be issued this season. Last year fees from 25 nimrods in his district were collected and paid to the secretary of agriculture for propagation of fish and game.

DELPHOS SCHOOLS SHOW INCREASE

Additional Buildings May Become Necessary, Hicks Says

If the rate of increase in public school enrollment which marked the past several years continues, Delphos may have to provide additional facilities for students next year, according to Superintendent of Schools H. R. Hick.

Tho the four buildings are well filled this term, it was not a difficult matter to accommodate all pupils. Increased enrollment of non-resident or "tuition" pupils has shown a marked increase and may be a large factor in necessitating more room.

Present enrollment in the public schools is 860, Hick declared. Delphos is growing, but not at a rate that makes overcrowding loom as a problem to be met in the near future.

St. John's parochial school met this contingency this term. A marked increase in enrollment made necessary the remodeling of the old building, abandoned for school purposes when the new structure was completed a number of years ago.

Work on the building is being rushed to completion. It will be completely outfitted in modern style and will provide excellent high school quarters, it is said.

Enrollment of 589 pupils is reported by Rev. Rupert, pastor of St. John's Catholic church.

AUTOISTS SMASH BOULEVARD LIGHTS ON DELPHOS MAIN-ST

Auto drivers seem to have trouble in threading the mazes of Main-st. Delphos, without getting in a few punches at the boulevard lights.

Ed Spellman, service director, stated Tuesday night a short time after a light standard at Second and Main-sts had been encountered by an erring motorist, that replacement of broken globes is much too expensive to become habitual.

Unlike most other cities, most of the boulevard standards in Delphos are equipped with three lights. The globes are sometimes broken in pairs at $2 or more per crack, while at the intersections the drivers get five chances at the light units of Delphos' White Way, the lights at those places being arranged in sets of five. Apprehension of guilty parties is urged by Spellman, who says they should be made to pay for the damage wrecked on the lighting system.

CLEVELAND — The business tide is rising; the receding tide has carried out most of the wrecks of business and the incoming tide is raising the tide line of business, according to the monthly business review of the Fourth Federal Reserve Bank, issued today.

"We're it possible to sum up in four words the expressions of our many correspondents in the district they would be 'we are buying, now,' the review says. An analysis of 76 basic materials shows that forty-eight are higher today than they were a year ago, according to the review. Merchants who have formerly resolved not to buy much merchandise are now of the opinion that it will be well for them to begin to purchase.

CHICAGO CASES POINTED OUT

Family Name Vanishes in Some Reorganizations

(By B. C. FORBES)

CHICAGO — (Special) — Big men do come and go, families do rise up and they sink back. Happenings and gossip here in Chicago have suggested this column.

The McCormick family, of International Harvester fame, although in its second generation, has handed over the presidential direction of its affairs to one not a member of the family.

Alexander Legge, the new president, is declared to be an unusually capable executive of the go-getter type. I'm told that he is rather blunt, rather brusque, dominating, lack of tact, but extremely aggressive, energetic and ambitious. There are first generation McCormicks coming along, but none of them is yet old enough or experienced enough to take the helm.

The running of another gigantic Chicago enterprise, the Pullman Company, has also just been taken over by a new man in no way related to the family that founded it.

This new man is E. F. Curry, formerly president of the allied concern that the Pullman company recently absorbed, and the gossip is that a main purpose of Pullman's taking over this concern was to acquire with Mr. Curry.

There are whispers that the inclusion of this new blood into the Pullman company will mean the inclusion of new policies and improvements in furnishing us with transportation.

Curry is now being made to undergo actual tests on cars. Structural changes are also in process of experiment. This is good news for the Pullman upper and lower berths.

Today are almost as awkward and uncomfortable as they were two decades ago.

Mr. Curry certainly has an opportunity to earn the good will of the American people. Will he succeed? Those who know him say he will.

One hears all sorts of stories about big changes that may occur among the packers.

One story is that no fewer than three packer families may stop down before very long from supreme dictation of their affairs.

J. Ogden Armour, gossip says, would like to lighten the burden of his family. He has been carrying for a generation.

Gossip also says that there may be developments affecting both theudahy and Morris families, one result of which would be the shifting of active managerial duties to other holders.

Whether anything or everything along these lines will actually develop I don't know. But I rather think something will.

It is the common understanding that Chicago's largest store, Marshall Field and Company, will shortly have a new head, as John G. Shedd stated to be contemplating retirement. Here also the new head will be an outsider in the sense that he will not be a member of the old family. None of the Field family apparently aspires to follow in the footsteps of the Napoleonic applier of America's largest dry-goods enterprise.

I hear that the health of Albert Oeb, of Sears Roebuck and company, is causing his associates and friends concern. Julius Rosenwald, president, is fond of declaring that the success of the business has been due more to Mr. Oeb's unceasing activities than to anything he himself has accomplished. Mr. Rosenwald's associate in this regard is, of course, not surprising. Nevertheless it is well known that Mr. Oeb's services have been of incalculable value to Sears Roebuck.

I find that in the banking field in Chicago new giants are coming to be counted. Take over responsibility from the men who here for years have been the dominating figures in local institutions. The old fellows, however, are still holding on to some of them have jettisoned part of the hard, daily work to a very young man constantly being added at the top for those who move themselves the ablest climb.

Wife Seeks Divorce by Charging
Serious Offense

Thanksgiving in 1919 meant something different than a turkey dinner and pumpkin pie for Mrs. Elizabeth Yeckel, who asserts in a divorce petition filed in common law court Wednesday.

That is the day she made a rapid trip from home, she avers, two days ahead of Henry Yeckel whom she accuses of chasing her with a gun. He is alleged to have threatened to kill her if she returned.

Mrs. Yeckel asserts that since her marriage she has been forced to work to earn money to support herself and child, Leonard, 3.

On one occasion, she recites, Yeckel destroyed her clothing when quarrelled at her and she was forced to wear old garments until she could obtain a new supply.

AIR PULLMAN LATEST FOR ENGLISH TRAVEL

LONDON.—The air pullman is the latest innovation planned for the accommodation of European travelers.

A well-known airway company has ordered a fleet of giant passenger planes, equipped with sleeping berths. The first of these new machines will fly from London to Berlin via Amsterdam and Hamburg. It is said the airbuds are the last word in comfort with wide mattresses which can be folded into a neat parcel, when not in use and tucked away out of sight in special compartments.

The first part of the service will be started between London to Hamburg and Berlin will come in the course of several weeks.

Each plane will also be equipped with a diner, providing the best of food and service. No provision has been made for an orchestra.

The air journey is expected to take a sudden jump in popularity.

DEATH IS BLAMED ON WITNESS

Attorney Aims to Shift Responsibility in Phillips Case

CLAIMS PEGGY USED HAMMER

Declares Meadows Woman Felled by Mrs. Caffee

(BY LAWING WARREN.)

LOS ANGELES — (United Press) — Defense attorney Harrington, in the trial of Mrs. Clara Phillips, today served notice on the jury he would attempt to show that Peggy Caffee, the state's eye-witness, struck the blow that felled Meadows.

Following the introductory of the defense by Harrington he announced that he is prepared to call witnesses to support his counter-attack by which he would shift partial blame for the hammer murder to Mrs. Caffee.

PURCHASE OF HAMMER — The defense will show, the attorney declared, that Peggy Caffee bought the hammer and at the scene of the murder was "so far as the defendant was aware, the only one to use it in any way."

Harrington asserted that Mrs. Phillips admitted participation in the crime would be explained by showing she was unaccountable as the result of hereditary epileptic convulsions.

The defendant sat with downcast eyes late yesterday while her attorney read dispositions declaring there was insanity in her family.

She betrayed greater emotion than when Mrs. Caffee sat on the stand and accused her of slaying Mrs. Meadows in jealous fury over her husband, Phillips.

UPSET BY JEALOUSY — Harrington in the introductory speech declared that the defense thesis will be that Clara, apprised that her husband was associating with another woman, was tremendously upset and became seized with epileptic convulsions. While not yet recovered, she met Peggy Caffee, who induced her to go to the Meadows apartment to "obtain evidence against her husband."

Peggy bought the hammer, declared she went to Long Beach to use it on the woman of whom Mrs. Phillips was jealous, but failing to find her, returned and went on the "death" automobile drive with Mrs. Phillips and Mrs. Meadows.

"We will show," said Harrington, "that the defendant asked Alberto to get out of the car and talk over the situation regarding Phillips; that Peggy remained in the car with the hammer and when the defendant had her finger broken in the hand-to-hand struggle, she called to Peggy for aid."

"We will further show that Peggy then rushed from the car and struck the blow that felled Alberto and that Peggy was the only one to use the hammer in any way, as far as the defendant was aware."

MRS. HALL WILL REPLY TODAY

If she can identify one of them as the murderer, it was learned today. The suspects will be lined up before her with a dozen others.

PIG WOMAN AS AMATEUR POET

NEW YORK — (Special) — Mrs. Jane Gibson, known as the "eye-witness" and sometimes called "the pig woman," in the Hall-Mills murder mystery, has written a poem to fittingly express her feelings regarding recent criticism of her testimony.

The poem, given to a newspaper man today, follows:

BY JANE GIBSON

I stand before a multitude
To judge me as I am;
I know that I have told the truth,
And back of that I stand.

No matter what befalls me now
My duty I must do;
I'll stick to what I know is just
And see the whole thing thru.

Ah, who's afraid of anyone
When truth is in the heart?
What care I for the liar's tongue
That sends the poison dart?

For truth and justice I will stand
And righteousness for all—
The wicked come and go their way,
But in the end they fail.

DELPHOS FETE IS HUGE SUCCESS

Thousands Participate in Community Halloween Event

GOMER BAND WINS PRIZE

Fogelin Declares Mardi Gras Exceeded Expectations

People from all ends of the earth gathered in Delphos Tuesday night, but in costume only were there racial differences. An assembly of nations could bring out no more striking modes of dress than were represented at the Mardi Gras staged by the merchants of Delphos.

Ten thousand from Delphos and district were present and their raiment outshined the colors of the rainbow and the most extravagant fully ever devised by the masters of musical comedy.

The Delphos business district was a huge playground converted into a fair and color. Residential districts were silent as the grave. Traction cars, the railroads, thousands of autos and other vehicles delivered the masqueraders at the municipal ball. Even Old Dobbin was pressed into service.

VARIETY IS SPICE — Cleopatra rubbed elbows with Charlie Chaplin, a burly Moor hobbled with elite American society, here and there a figure stalked out as if from the pages of Gulliver's Travels and linked arms with the modern vamp.

The familiar clown was cast in the shade by the brilliant array. Pinocchio was overshadowed by the dashing—sometimes burlesque—ladies in the garb of Holland. Female impersonations were numerous and the male impersonations were in the hands of the women.

Main-st was struck with brilliant lack of lanterns. Merchants permitted lights in their show windows to burn which, added by the bonfire lights and red light torches, cast over the assembly the weird tints of Halloween.

Picking out the best costumes from among the maskers, who numbered 1,865 by actual count in the parade, was no mean task, but it was accomplished by the judges, and over 100 of the best costumes drew merchandise and cash prizes. Most were given orders on merchants for various articles. The winners were "tagged" by the judges.

GOMER BAND WINS — The Gomer band, rigged up as a Sousa aggregation from "Pumpkin Center" drew first prize among the bands. Ten dollars in cash was awarded.

Scores of young people came to the City Building, but not to jail. A dance given in City Hall as a side attraction, drew them there. Many participated in the dancing on Main-st as the concluding number of the evening's program.

Charles Fogelin, chairman of the committee on arrangement declared the Mardi Gras exceeded his expectations. It eclipsed the last previous one held four years ago, he said.

Judges of the costumes were Mrs. H. M. Veil, Mrs. John Traxler, Miss Edna McIninch, Thomas Williams, Martin Shenk, Ed King and Isadore Fogelin.

TEACHER'S TRIAL PROTESTED

Chicago Woman Accused of Revealing Wrong Things

CHICAGO — (United Press) — Storm of protest hovered over the board of education today, following the trial of Miss Harriet Ostrom, teacher, accused of teaching fifth grade children "things they shouldn't be told."

Miss Ostrom was tried on charges that she instructed her pupils in sex knowledge and that she slapped unruly children.

The complaint was written by the son of an Italian family, whose parents could neither read nor write English.

Ralph W. Condoe, prosecuting the case, stopped in the middle of a statement purported to show what she taught the children.

"Does the beautiful story of life embarrass you?" Miss Ostrom asked. Miss Ostrom described herself as "an old maid with peculiar ways" and admitted that she had slapped children when she thought it necessary. She declared that she was being persecuted because she was not a member of the Chicago Teachers' Federation.

The case was taken under advisement. Members of the board said that no matter which way they ruled, they expected criticism.

NEW ANGLES IN KILLING PUZZLE

Mysterious Details Crop Out in Havre, Mont., Case

STORIES ARE CONTRADICTED

Bullet Causing Death of Woman
Fired Downward

HAVRE, Mont. — (Associated Press) — Unexplained details of the double killing of Rev. Leonard Jacob Christler, outstanding churchman and orator, and Mrs. Margaret Carleton, a member of his congregation, still puzzled authorities today.

When a coroner's jury Saturday night returned a verdict to the effect that Mrs. Carleton did the shooting while under the influence of an overdose of sleeping powders, the matter appeared closed, but Mrs. Joseph Pyle, mother of Mrs. Carleton, was not satisfied and started a further investigation.

Within the past 24 hours it was shown that the bullet which killed Mrs. Carleton had been fired downward, not directly in or upward, as had been testified at the coroner's inquest.

FORMER JUDGE TALKS — The husband of the dead woman, former Judge Frank E. Carleton, issued in California a statement asserting that Mrs. Carleton had confessed to him her love for Rev. Mr. Christler and had intimated that her love was returned. Mr. Carleton condemned what he characterized as an "attempt to whitewash" Mr. Christler's character.

Ownership of the pistol used in the killings is another mystery. It was not Mrs. Carleton's as far as is known. Investigation thus far has failed to disclose that it was the property of the Christlers.

The only story of the shooting told so far was that of Mrs. Christler, said to have been the only other person in the Christler house at the time.

TIME SENTIMENT IS GROWING

Defeat of Measure Seen by Business Men of City

DAYLIGHT SAVING MISTAKE

Would Return Chaos of Past, Heffner Declares

Enactment of daylight savings November 7 means a repetition of the chaos experienced during the past summer in the opinion of James I. Heffner, manager of the Lima Automobile Club.

Heffner believes that two standards of time are confusing to the tourist who is passing thru the city. But the inconvenience caused the cross country traveler is but trivial when compared to that of the farmer. Daylight savings has never pleased the farmer.

"Say what you please," said Heffner, "the farmer is against the proposition. They come into town expecting to shop, and find the stores closed. A train leaves at a certain time—they drive into make it only to find it gone."

MANY ANNOYANCES
These are but a few of the annoyances enumerated by Heffner that cause rural communities to oppose daylight savings.

If the city adopts daylight saving, he sees no chance for the county to follow suit on account of the feeling of the farmers. Business men are interested in time changes only as their ability to serve the public is involved, reports from them regarding the adoption of daylight saving time show.

Merchants who are members of the Better Business Bureau have gone on record as against Daylight Saving time as far as out of town customers are concerned, advice from the bureau says.
As far as the opening and closing of the store is concerned the extra hours in the evening is appreciated but customers coming to Lima from other towns are inconvenienced.
Much of the prosperity of the city depends upon the buying power of the farmer and the resident of the small towns nearby and anything which tends to disrupt such trade is bad for the city. It was pointed out that the county adopts the Daylight Saving time at the same time the city does it would be a mistake for the city to attempt to put it in force, merchants feel, and for that reason they are against any change.
FAST TIME, MISTAKE
While members of the chamber of commerce have not definitely expressed themselves regarding Daylight Saving time, it is understood most of them feel that a time change by the city along with the county and the railroads on Central time would be a mistake.
Hotels and restaurants are praying that the measure when it goes before the people November 7 will fail. Their business has been disrupted by the changing of the time for the summer months.
In several of the hotels two clocks were used one being marked "city time" and the other "railroad time." In another hotel Central time only was used and the city time ignored.
Unofficial surveys being made by various interests show that there is so much feeling against the measure that it will, without a doubt, be defeated at the election and Daylight Saving become a thing of the past for Lima.

GOEKE'S ELECTION CONCEDED

Republican National Organization Anticipates Defeat in Ohio

7 DISTRICTS DEMOCRATIC

G. O. P. Admits Congressional Areas Lost to Them

Democratic victories in at least seven and possibly eight of Ohio's congressional districts are conceded by the Republican national organization, according to Louis Ludlow, staff correspondent for the Columbus Dispatch in Washington.

This estimate is not an off hand guess, but is based on a detailed study of reports from the most reliable sources that could be drawn upon.

It gives nothing to the Democrats which the G. O. P. managers feel they can claim for their own party. It embodies the result of a political survey that is devoid of bunk, and intended to get at the exact facts in the situation.

Under this survey the election of the following Democratic candidates in Ohio is forecast:

Third district—Warren G. Harding, of Hamilton
Fourth district—J. Henry Goetze, of Lima Ninth district—Isaac Sherwood, of Toledo
Fourth district—Martin L. Davey, of Kent
Seventeenth district—William A. Ashbrook, of Johnstown
Twentieth district—Charles A. Wooley, of Cleveland
Twenty-first district—Robert C. Crosser, of Cleveland

Republican leaders on their own figures are expecting to re-elect sitting members from the First, Second, Fifth, Sixth, Eighth, Tenth, Eleventh, Twelfth, Thirteenth, Fifteenth and Twenty-second districts, and possibly Charles Brand of Urbana, candidate in the Seventh district.

The G. O. P. organization prophesies are not so sure about the Sixth district, where Representative Charles C. Kearns is mixed up in a hot battle with William N. Gableman of Portsmouth.

Should Gableman win out, the make-up of the delegation as forecasted would include 14 Republicans and eight Democrats instead of 15 Republicans and 7 Democrats.

Based on a national scope the survey gives the Republicans a majority in the house, but a greatly reduced one.

ORGANIZE TO SAVE GREAT LAKES STATION

The hastily organized committee to save Great Lakes, has called this morning here as a result of an important decision by the navy department to abolish the Great Lakes Naval Training Station.

D. I. Goodwillie, chairman of the committee, made public a letter from William M. Leopold of the Iowa State Chamber of Commerce, quoting Admiral High Rodman, chairman of the commission which has the Great Lakes matter in charge, as sounding the death knell of the station.

The Great Lakes Naval Training Station is slated to go and must go under our present arrangements, which cannot be changed," Mr. Leopold said the admiral told him, adding in the letter that Admiral Rodman was to understand that it was physically impossible for the navy to continue this station, although he knew it would work much hardship on many of the men in the service.

JUMPS FROM SCHOOL TO STARDOM

MISS LORNA DUNN

ST. PAUL, Minn. — (Special) — The journey from school to theatrical stardom is usually a long, obstacle-strewn journey. But Lorna Dunn, 18-year-old high school student, made it in one jump.

A musical comedy company playing here was in difficulties because the leading lady was called home by illness, and none of the chorus girls could take her place.

Miss Dunn, who had starred in local theatricals, was suggested and she "appeared as the star two days later." The girls' showing was so good that she was engaged to play the leading role during the rest of the company's road season.

After traffic has gone over the surface for a while, Clements said, screenings will gradually become incorporated with the tar, and become black enough to suit everyone.

ROAD PROTESTED BY RESIDENTS

Dissatisfaction Expressed With Lima-Elida Section

INSPECTION IS SCHEDULED

Engineer Approves of Completed Work West of Here

Residents along the Lima-Elida section of the Harding Highway building west of here are dissatisfied with the portion of the road already completed.

An expression of their disapproval was voiced Wednesday when Commissioner John Thompson visited the division highway office in the Domestic building, and filed a protest.

He asserted that the state highway department had built the wrong sort of road. He told Grover F. Clements, division engineer, that he had presumed all along that the road would have an asphalt top on it.

The completed sections show the surface covered with white stone screenings sprinkled on tar. The road is white and resembles concrete at a little distance. The Thompson and other taxpayers want a black road.

An inspection of the road by Clements and Don Keith, representing the state highway department, and the county commissioners will be arranged for some day this week.

Clements is of the opinion that residents west of the city will be thoroughly satisfied once the road is opened to traffic.

He asserts that the contractors have built one of the best tar-bound macadam jobs he has seen in his experience as an engineer.

"There is nearly a foot of rock under the wearing surface," he declared, "and the surface does not give under a ten ton roller."

A base, comprising two courses of large water bound stone, was first laid. On top of this a three inch surface was laid and penetrated with a gallon of tar to the square yard. The screenings were then spread over this and a seal coat of three-fourths of a gallon of tar applied and the surface again covered with screenings.

About two miles of the road are finished, and the entire four miles

STILLS RUSHED TO SUPPLY U. S.

Scotch Working Overtime to Meet American Demand

BOOTLEGGERS REAP HARVEST

Millions Made by Individuals Within Few Months

(By DAVID L. BLUMENFELD)

LONDON — (United Press) — Whisky makers in Scotland are working overtime, in extra night shifts, in order to supply liquor to the dry throat of thirsty America.

In the Highlands, the passengers on the night expresses flash past great lighted buildings, from whose tall chimneys the smoke belches nightlong, where the whirr of driving belts and the whizz of patent bottle stoppers is an incessant hum. They are the distilleries of Scotland, where liquor is made on mass production principles in order that Mr. Jones of New York City or Mr. Brown of Detroit may have his quart bottle "Old Scotch" for the entertainment of himself and his friends.

Not for years has the liquor trade in Scotland been as prosperous as today. Whisky, which can be made at say $1.50 a quart, sold in England for $2.00 and smuggled to the United States for sale at anything from $12 to $14 per quart, is a gold mine somewhere.

TRADE QUADRUPLED

Since prohibition in the United States, the whisky trade of Scotland has practically quadrupled itself. Millions of gallons of yellow

Scotch whisky are smuggled yearly into the United States.

For every run runner, who is captured at least ten arrive safely at their destination, landing their cargo undisturbed, according to statements of local agents of the United States prohibition forces.

It is not hard to arrive at the amount of liquor thus being brought to "dry" America. The other day a vessel was taken by the authorities with forty thousand gallons of whisky in her hold—consigned from Cadiz, from which port she had called at Glasgow. She, at that time, was a small vessel. Then others landed their cargo unmolested. There's four hundred thousand gallons.

So great is the profit in Scotch whisky that one prominent bootlegger openly boasted here that he was able, with a deposit of $200,000 placed in a London bank, to turn that amount into $2,500,000 in the space of three months.

Another bootlegger declared in a London hotel, that he has paid out as much as $300,000 in one day in "largesse"—a polite name for graft—in order to put thru a deal which netted him the little pocket money of $4,000,000.

METHODS EXPLAINED

Here's how it's done. A bootlegger, and he buys from a Scotch firm, for export, ten thousand cases of whisky or one hundred and twenty thousand bottles. At two dollars a bottle, the wholesale price in Scotland, his outlay is obviously $240,000. The stuff will sell in America for $1,440,000, averaging each bottle sold at twelve dollars.

Take away from this the cost of loading and transporting the stuff across the ocean and there is still $1,400,000 left. Make a generous allowance for "largesse" and the million is still there.

Of course it isn't all peaches and cream being a run runner across the Atlantic. The United Press is in possession of the record of one steamer which recently made the trip and disposed of her cargo successfully. Her trials and how she fought them are detailed fully in the next chapter.

OHIO'S MOST IMPORTANT WELFARE NEEDS OUTLINED

COLUMBUS — Miss Lucia B. Johnson, president of the Ohio Welfare conference, in annual session here today outlined Ohio's most important welfare needs as follows:

First: Social conscience, and aroused public opinion that sees beyond selfish group interest to the good of all.

Second: Better care of feeble-minded by the state.

Third: Need of every man for a steady job, to be able to support his family without charity and in order to maintain self-respect.

Money appropriated by the last legislature for the new feeble-minded institution has not yet been put to use, she pointed out. Partition politics should be kept out of such an urgent social issue, she declared.

Green is determined that a proposed constitutional amendment which the committee agreed upon last session, but which was not allowed to reach the floor, must be forced to a showdown in the house this winter after appropriation bills have been disposed of.

SOUTH-CENTRAL GAME THANKSGIVING DAY WILL BE THE GRIDIRON CLASSIC OF THE YEAR, AND PRESENT DOPE PREDICTS A REAL FIGHT

MICHIGAN LOOMS BIG AS CONFERENCE CONTENDER

COACH YOST'S TEAM WILL BE NEAR THE TOP

(BY BILLY EVANS)

MICHIGAN is certain to be a troublemaker in the western football this year.

Coach Yost has a team with great possibilities. It has plenty of power, drive and fight.

In the game with Ohio State Michigan proved that it is well equipped in the art of modern football.

For several years many of the western experts have insisted that Michigan teams were not making the most of their possibilities, due to the fact that too much old-fashioned football was used.

It has been argued that Michigan for several years has been lacking in variety of play and aggressiveness of attack. Michigan, according to the experts, was playing a rather stereotyped game that could be easily discerned after a period of so.

TEAM IS WELL COACHED

The Michigan team that lined up against Ohio State certainly refuted any and all such arguments. While Michigan didn't open up to any great extent against State I feel that it was due to the fact that Michigan always held the upper hand and was forcing State to do the leading, as they say in boxing circles.

Michigan having gained the lead, forced State to come to the game and was quick to take advantage of every slip in State's play. In other words, Michigan played a wide awake game, never failing to follow the ball and often profiting thereby.

Yost's pupils showed they were well coached in the fundamentals of the game. The rather green and inexperienced line charged, box and head. The secondary defense of Michigan was a thing of beauty. Seidman has a ever seen better work on the part of a team's secondary defense.

STATE USED MANY PASSES

Knowing that State would attempt to hinder Michigan when Yost's charges opened up, Michigan had his team prepared for such a happening. After Michigan forced to the front Workman started to carry forward passes all over the field.

Michigan soon showed that it was prepared to cope with the forward passes of State. The fleet Maize and Blue backs always covered their man. On almost every play one of more Michigan forwards would sit through and force Workman to hurry his passes.

Never have I seen Workman quite so inaccurate, a majority of his passes being grounded without a State player even getting close to the ball. However, no fault can be found with Workman on this feature of play, rather it is due to the Michigan forwards for their activities in forcing him to hurry his passes.

In an attempt to win State uncovered its back of tricks. In the last two periods, Workman opened up every day, rather than the Michigan, disclosed but little of his strategy. One of the very few trick plays used by Yost's team resulted in a touchdown. It was a beautifully executed delayed double pass.

THREAT STARS AT QUARTER

Quarterback Corbitt of Michigan, who ran his team in fine fashion, had been using Fullback Cappon a great deal in crashing off the line. Such a play seemed to be on tap when the delayed pass was pulled. With Thritz handling the ball, Cappon dashed past him and into the left side of State's line. Most of the State team was pulled over to stop the plunge of Cappon, who had been a consistent gather.

While State was watching Cappon, Thritz tossed the ball to Robert, who in turn slipped it to Kipke. From start to finish the play was well executed, the deception perfect. It was an easy matter for Kipke to run 25 yards for a touchdown, entire State runner, label, being close.

Michigan's game with Ohio State proved that the Ann Arbor eleven has great possibilities. It also proved that Edding Yost and his assistant, George Little, are not going to lose any anticipated stuff in 1922.

The power of the Michigan eleven was further emphasized in the game with Illinois, which Yost's team won by the decisive score of 24 to 9.

Illinois had surprised the football world by holding Iowa, the conqueror of Yale, to an 8 to 7 score. It looked as if Michigan was in for a lot of trouble.

Yet minus Kipke, the star of the Michigan backfield, Illinois was soundly trounced.

FOUR STAR PLAYERS OF FAMOUS CENTRE COLLEGE TEAM

END LEMON

One of the outstanding features of Centre's play against Harvard was the work of End Lemon, when it is considered it was his first big game. Under the coaching of Charles Moran Lemon is certain to be a most improved player next season. Harvard was unable to make much headway around his end.

HALFBACK ROBERTSON

While Robertson did not back in the limelight for Centre in the Harvard game, he is one of the most dependable backs on the eleven. Robertson is a whale on the defensive and his great work often aids some other more flashy player to win glory because of a long run. He is a sure tackler.

FULLBACK BARTLETT

In the game with Harvard, Centre was without the services of its star fullback, Bartlett. After reaching Boston with the rest of the Centre squad, Bartlett was taken ill and removed to a hospital, where he underwent an operation for the removal of his tonsils.

"HUMP" TANNER

Tanner has not played his usual strong game for Centre this year due to physical ailments. When the sister of Captain Roberts was dying, Tanner was one of the players to submit to a transfusion of blood in an effort to save her life. Shortly afterward Tanner suffered from a flock of boils that have played havoc with his general condition.

MICHIGAN LEADING

NEW YORK — Michigan, headed toward a Western Conference championship with one of the greatest gridiron machines "Hurry Up" Yost has drilled in several years is the only major college in the country whose eleven has not been scored on this season, according to a recapitulation of records to date.

Seven elevens with but one touchdown registered against them are Harvard, Lafayette, Brown, Notre Dame, Minnesota, Iowa and Rensselaer Poly.

Twenty-two teams show undefeated slates. Listed sectionally, they are:

EAST—Harvard, Princeton, Cornell, Lafayette, Washington and Jefferson, Pennsylvania, Dickinson, Penn State, Brown, Army, Rensselaer Poly and West Virginia.

WEST—Wisconsin, Notre Dame, Michigan, Iowa and Minnesota.

FAR WEST—California, Washington and Oregon.

SOUTH—Vanderbilt and Florida.

BOUT IN TENT IS PROPOSED

Fight fans in Delphos are all primed for a pugilistic show, but find themselves in much the same condition as the Beau Brummel who is dressed up with no place to go.

The trouble lies in the fact that efforts to promote a show have been curbed because a suitable hall is lacking.

The only available place is the City Hall, where seating facilities are limited. The auditorium of St. John's school was used for several fights when the game was first awakening in Delphos, but it cannot be obtained again, fans say.

Walter Perry, manager of the premier Lima bantamweight, Don Baxter, who has been in Delphos several days, stated he will be glad to negotiate with Delphos promoters for services of his boy. A fight between Johnny Newton of Mansfield and Sallor Grant of Lima is receiving some favorable comment.

Baxter's mentor said he would be willing to entertain a proposal in event a show could be staged without the next ten days or two weeks under a tent. He is able to provide a top 90 feet long and 60 feet wide, he said.

A tent fight is possible, Perry said, if arrangements are made immediately to preclude the danger of the undertaking being checked by severe weather.

VETERANS SLIPPING

Unquestionably the veteran shortstops in the American League are slipping.

A few years back the names of Scott and Peckinpaugh would be immediately mentioned if one was selecting the best shortstop in the Johnsonian organization.

Those days are over. Scott has gone back badly. He has slowed up. The spirit is there, but he can no longer cover the ground. In the series with the Giants a half dozen balls escaped him that would have been easy chances a few years ago.

Peckinpaugh is also going the other way, but not as rapidly as Scott. Tack can still cover the ground.

Walter Gerber of the St. Louis Browns is one of the old standbys who seems to be going as strong as ever.

The two most brilliant shortstops in the American League last year were youngsters, Chick Galloway and Rigney.

Joe Sewell, the Cleveland shortstop, who gave so much promise in 1921, had a bad year of his last season. He appeared to have lost a bit of his confidence.

THRILLS LIKELY TO DEVELOP IN CENTRAL-TIFFIN GAME

(BY MERRICK M. HULL)

Saturday's game between Central High and Tiffin may very easily prove just as thrilling and just as exciting as the South-Cleveland Heights battle.

Five teams, which have appeared on either South or College field this year have been able to show an impressive record on paper, and the fact that the Tiffinites work out with the Heidelberg college team gives them a finish to their playing which has counted in their previous battles.

Coach Thibert, while asserting that Central was improving every day, was very pessimistic about the game, stating that Tiffin was beaten by Toledo Scott 18 to 0, while the Toledo gridders were able to amass 48 points against Findlay.

Tiffin, according to the dope, has been underrated by the majority of people, who have seen the eleven in action. When a game is on, and the need for a score is not imperative, straight football, without brilliant tricky plays is used. It is only when lead by their opponents that the Tiffinites display their real form.

There seems to be no doubt that had Tiffin been placed earlier on the Central schedule that the Seneca-so lads would have walked away with the battle. The fighting spirit and the increased defensive and offensive playing of Coach Thibert's aggregation, however, should give them a chance to win. But South wants to establish a name in scholastic circles and is hoping that they will be able to pile up a big score.

The work of the rest of the week will, in a large extent, determine the chance of Central. The Red and Green wearers have shown a tendency all season to rest after a victory. If the team works the rest of the week as they have Monday and Tuesday nights, they have more than a chance to win. If they attempt to rest on their laurels their chances will be small.

South, which travels to Van Wert Saturday is plugging along in fine fashion and Coach Burdette is building up a more effective interference.

for the backfield.

Interference was the only weak point of the South playing against Cleveland Heights. On as many as seven occasions, the Blue and Gold had wonderful opportunities to force their way down the field by straight football, only to be stopped or thrown for a loss, when visiting secondary defense would tackle back of line of scrimmage. Lack of interference was shown in exchanges of punts during the game, Cleveland Heights returning on an average of 8 to 10 yards farther after catching the punt than would South.

De Pere, who was out of the game against the Clevelanders may be in the lineup Saturday, and he will add to the effectiveness of the team. Coach Burdette is not yet satisfied with his lineup and it is likely to use DePere against Van Wert. It is very likely that another shift in lineup will be tried out.

HUGGINS MAY NOW AGREE TO TRADE MEUSEL

From now until the opening of the baseball season trade rumors will come thick and fast. Because of the poor showing of the Yankees in the big series a number of players on that club are certain to be traded over and over again during the winter.

In the early summer of last season the word was passed that a big deal was hanging fire between New York and Chicago. According to the dope New York was to get Collins and Fisher for Meusel, Mays, Ward, a couple of others of less note and a wad of money.

The deal fell thru however. It developed that the main reason it "fizzled" was because Manager Huggins of the Yankees refused to part with Bob Meusel. Huggins has always been strong for Meusel despite the fact that he was well aware of Meusel's indifferent tactics.

No one is more familiar with Meusel's great natural ability than Huggins, and he felt sure that Bob would sooner or later find himself and develop into one of the great stars of the game.

Meusel's failure to run out a hit, sacrifice on two occasions when that was the real play, coupled with several other mental errors, may have caused Huggins to weaken on him. So, after all, the talked-about Chicago deal may become a possibility.

MAT ARTISTS START YEAR

NEW YORK — The Metropolitan wrestling season will be opened Wednesday with three bouts, two between leading contenders for the world's heavyweight championship title held by Ed "Strangler" Lewis. In the other Peter Jarvis will defend his crown as world's middleweight champion.

Of first importance will be the struggle, best two out of three falls, between Joe Stecher and Charles Cutler. Stecher, famous as the perfect of the scissors hold, is a former world's heavyweight champion and Cutler has held the American title.

Nat Pendleton, of the last American Olympic wrestling team, and Yusuf Hussans, Bulgarian expert, will grapple best two out of three falls, in the other heavyweight match.

Ed Fields will try to capture the middleweight crown from Jarvis.

BILLY EVANS SAYS

Psychology plays its part in football like any other sport.

In the east a lot of people think the natives of the west are still wild. Coach Howard Jones of Iowa must have figured a number of the young men on the Yale eleven were of that opinion.

When the Iowa team came on the field at Yale they were swathed in blankets and wore huge headgears. When it came time to start practice they removed the blankets, peeled off their huge sweaters and walked around the field in a strange serpentine formation, stretching their arms and legs and grunting lustily as they did so.

Before Yale could realize it, Iowa had scored a touchdown and sewed up the game.

The first impression counts in sport and Iowa certainly gave Yale something to think about as they western team made its entrance.

GREEN NOTRE DAME TEAM FACES EIGHT HARD GAMES

Coach Knute Rockne of Notre Dame is one of the dramatic figures of the present football season.

After producing great teams at Notre Dame during his four years as head coach, teams which lost but two games in four years, and which won three consecutive games from West Point, Nebraska, Indiana and Purdue, Rockne found himself shorn entirely of the masters of the game who made history in 1921, when the football squad reported.

Ten men of that team had been picked for all-America by some expert or other. Paul Castner, who broke into a 50-50 division of the right half position as the season closed, was the only regular who remained.

In the meantime, Rockne, who is also director of athletics, track coach and almost every other thing there is in Notre Dame athletics, had scheduled Georgia Tech, Army, Nebraska, Carnegie Tech, Purdue and Indiana for major games. De-paw and Butler were carded as soft spots. St. Louis and Kazoo as set-ups.

Did Rockne quit? It was then that the wonderful personality which more than any other factor results in Notre Dame's greatness in football asserted itself. He told his men that he would be hard to satisfy from then on. That they must make up for lack of weight and lack of experience by something else—the something else which had given Notre Dame teams the title of "Fighting Irish."

"I don't want men who will go in and die gamely," he said. "I want men who will go in there and fight to live."

RICKEY GIVES REASONS

"What was the cause of the failure of the St. Louis Cardinals to make a better showing in the National League?"

Recently that question was put to Manager Branch Rickey of that team.

"Lack of pitching," was the immediate reply.

"The lack of pitching," continued Rickey, "was brought about by the absolute collapse of Willie Daub." "Last year and the year before, when Daub started a ball game I figured the chances of winning the game were greatly in our favor."

"On past performances I figured on Daub to be the ace of the Cardinals' pitching staff in 1922. Daub appeared to have his usual stuff last season, but he simply couldn't win."

"When the ace of your pitching staff goes wrong, you have suffered a real wallop. If our pitching had held up I feel sure we would have won the pennant."

There you have the inside dope on the collapse of the Cardinals when they seemed all set for the pennant.

SHORT SHAVINGS

George Ritzler, a 4-year-old child created consternation in Front Street, O., with a new toy hammer he had been given as a birthday present.

The youngster walked along the street hitting the plate glass show windows of each store as he passed. "Did it break?" asked one merchant when he was hit by a tin cup of water in the face. "No," he was told. "But mighty near it."

Alva Springer, farmer, modestly admits that he cannot eat a sweet potato weighing five pounds.

Alva Morrow admits that a radish he grew is 25 inches long, with a butt measure of 28 inches, the largest radish of which there is record at North Baltimore, O.

His department has a monkey its name is Jolly. "Many a kid is late for school, playing with it," says one of the boys. "That is not the worst. Each day it collects a lot of stuff from those who visit, which keeps us busy making visitors who come to him their property."

Miss Irene Hotley, Rockford, writes I was reviewing some of the master's work in preparation for his examinations, and my roommate, who was not studying, bothered me by talking. After a time she realized that I could not study when so often interrupted, and she said she could not speak another word. A moment later she thought of something more to tell me, then remembered that I was reviewing, so she walked across the room and whispered her news to me.
